Canadian TV Show 'Tide Waters' Set To Premiere In January 2014

Vancouver May 22, 2013 - The upcoming TV drama 'Tide Waters' is making a big splash in the Vancouver film scene. With talents such as director Terence H. Winkless (TV's Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, Disney's White Wolves 2) and Vancouver local actress Scarlett Bruns (Heart of Dance, Sunday's Child) attached, the project is already generating a lot of local buzz. 'It's a really cool concept' say Bruns of the script. 'I love the characters, there're not too many opportunities to play an independent kick-ass female so I'm really looking forward to audiences reaction to her smart mouth!' Penned by Vancouver writing team Megan Russell and Ben Rindel 'Tide Waters' is already mapped out for a 14 episode season which is set to air with a double episode premiere January 9th 2014.

Tide Waters also stars L.A.-based-Canadian actor Richard Hochman, and Vancouver actors Gardiner Millar, Penny Cochrane, and Jordan Connor.

Show Synopsis:

'The apocalypse has come and gone. The only town left is the quiet coastal community of Tide Waters where, unsure of what else to do, people have gone about their lives. But when bodies start to wash up in the harbour Detectives Natalie Costigan (Bruns) and Carlou Mac (Hochman) must figure out where they came from and what exactly it was the wiped out the rest of humanity.'

"Any time you can generate a pilot that is reminiscent of X-Files, Lost, Twin Peaks, and On the Beach (a great old movie with Gregory Peck) among others, you are really on to something." - The Examiner

"Sterling job. Tide Waters is extremely engaging, intriguing, and mysterious, with just the right amount of tongue in its cheek." - Reel Magazine
