FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

'TRANCEOLOGY' a new CD from Balligomingo's Vic Levak

Vancouver, Canada October 16, 2015: One of the lower mainland's most sought after Producers has finally set some time aside this year to produce an album of his own.

Balligomingo's Vic Levak is no stranger to chill vibes after being at the head of the Balligomingo success story for over a decade. That together with his experience working with bands such as Loverboy, Delerium, Kristy Thirsk and more, has set him up for success with his first solo release: TRANCEOLOGY.

"I feel like Tranceology is a natural evolution of Balligomingo. It has a more chillout vibe, but it doesn't stray far from the family tree. These tracks were made with Balli fans in mind, but I'm hoping everybody finds something in here to love," says Levak from his studio in Burnaby, BC. "We've had some great response to it so far, and I'm really looking forward to getting the music out into the world."

Praise for TRANCEOLOGY: "There are some things in life that get better with time. Vic Levak is one of them. I don't know how he does it, but every record he does is better than the last. Play this record from start to finish and you will see what I mean. This record is as close to perfect as it gets. And you can take that to the bank!" Mike Reno – Lead Singer for Loverboy

"Vic Levak has always been a fantastic writer and musician. His new solo release 'Tranceology' displays his penchant for writing soaring and beautiful melodies. The music is varied and lush, ranging from ambient/chillout to solo piano and acoustic pieces. Fans of Enigma, Achillea, Mythos and Balligomingo will absolutely love this album. Definitely music for an epic getaway." Justin Elswick – Sleepthief

Included on the album is the song "Never Will Be" featuring lead vocals and lyrics by Jax Smith.
